Teachers Weekly Update

Friday 23rd October 2026

Next week...

is half term! Woo! We made it!

I am so unbelievably proud of your children this half term! They have all worked their little socks off and achieved some great things! We have blending in Reception, automaticity in Year 1, phenomenal spelling, fanastic reasoning in maths and some exceptionally talented little artists! I am one very proud teacher indeed!

Thank you to Elva's daddy for coming in to be our first 'Secret Storyteller' of the academic year! It was so wonderful for the children to listen to him read two stories, very inspirational! Our recommended read this week is a book he read - we loved it!

There is no homework to be completed this holiday - please enjoy the time together and rest; Autumn 2 is full on! We have popped a couple of reading books in though to keep those brains ticking!

Have a wonderful half term holiday, I can't wait to hear all about it!

Stars of the week

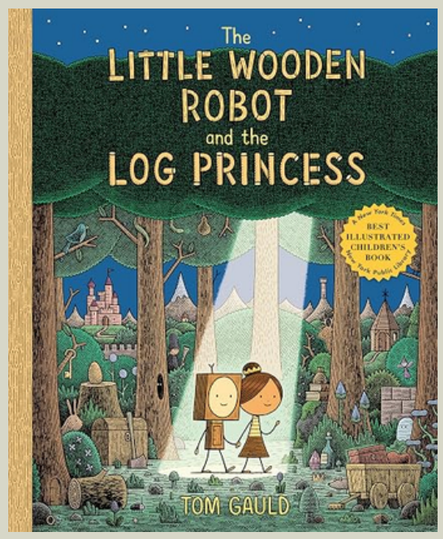

Owl SUPERSTARS this week are...

Henry - for your love of learning. It is such a priviledge being able to watch you have your WOW moments!

Elva - for the resilience you show towards your learning. You listen so carefully to feedback and use it to make yourself the best you can be!

Recommended Read

This week's Owl Class recommended read is ...

For years, the king and queen have tried desperately to have a baby. Their wish was granted twice, when an engineer and a witch gave them a little wooden robot and an enchanted log princess.

But there's just one catch: every night when the log princess sleeps, she transforms back into an ordinary log, and can only be woken up with magic words.

The princess and her robot brother are are inseparable, until the sleeping princess, mistaken for lumber, is accidentally carted off to parts unknown. Now it's up to her devoted brother to find her, and get them safely back home.
